That sight is a little racy for me. I saw one that possibly could be our room but the picture was inappropriate for sending. If we KNOW that someone is soliciting then we should involve the police for removal. The key is that they are soliciting or negatively impacting our clientele.

Thanks.

Good Afternoon Jay,

I threw a few more Prostitutes off property last night around 2 AM, you said that you were interested in the web site that they do the call services from and it is called BackPage.com

Were there any specific referencing our property? I've looked at few and can't find any with our hotel room in the background

Here might be someone that is staying at our hotel

Thanks.
